About Chesterton Schools Network

Chesterton Academy of Northern Utah is a member of the Chesterton Schools Network (MN), which has 45 schools in operation world-wide with 15 more set to open next fall. Founded in 2008 as a result of a grass-roots movement of parents, Chesterton Academy schools offer a rigorous, integrated high school curriculum centered on the Incarnation of Jesus Christ. Focusing on the classics, the schools develop complete thinkers who learn to draw on faith and reason for the purpose of building a culture of life. About the Employer

The purpose of Chesterton Academy of Northern Utah is to nurture the minds and souls of our children through a well-defined and academically rigorous classical education and to develop complete thinkers who learn to draw on faith and reason for the purpose of building the culture of life. We desire to pursue TRUTH, GOODNESS, and BEAUTY, as revealed by God, throughout the school day.

Students at Chesterton Academy of Northern Utah enjoy a cohesive, content-rich education. A broad exposure to many different disciplines helps students avoid the pitfalls of specializing too early, which can lead to limited interests and narrow thinking. In the words of G.K. Chesterton, we seek to teach our students that "there is a whole truth of things and that in knowing and speaking it we are happy."
